Do you remember when we were young
Still feel the Orange-Igloo on your tongue?
You were Kid Curry, I was Hannibal Hayes
When we nicked the Merry bottles from the drays

We were the boys on the south side of the rails
Hiding in the attic, telling White Lady tales

*Boys in the backyards
Angels and bastards
Those were the endless days of fun!*

No time for breakfast, we had to make new kites
Or just watch the excavators on the building-sites
Powwow in the wigwam, drinking lemonade
We were The Man from U.N.C.L.E. and Ivanhoe in the glade

We were the boys on the south side of the rails
Lying in the grass watching the vapour trails (oh yeah!)

*Boys in the backyards
Angels and bastards
Those were the endless days of
Boys in the backyards
Angels and bastards
Those were the endless days of fun!*

We were the boys on the south side of the rails
Kings in a world of Flintstones and rusty nails

*Boys in the backyards
Angels and bastards
Those were the endless days of
Boys in the backyards
Angels and bastards
Ouch! All the endless days of fun!*
